

Data lords

- Be trained in how to use the School Environment Tracking System
- Collect and compile information about the school's use of resources on the School Environment Tracking System (SETS)
- Report this information to the school community through assemblies, Junior School Council, School Council and the newsletter

- Meet with Mr Blake to discuss progress on reducing the school's use of resources.
- Train other students in how to use the SETS system